The International Master's Program in Tourism and Hospitality
National Kaohsiung University of Hospitality and Tourism

Live, Learn & Belong in Kaohsiung

IMTH guide to studying, living and experiencing Kaohsiung

Weather • Culture • Transportation • Culinary • Scholarships • Study Experience • Campus Life

About IMTH & NKUHT

Ranking

- #1 In Taiwan - Recreation and Sport Academic Cluster
- #1 In Taiwan - Service Discipline
- #23 Worldwide - In the world Hospitality and Leisure Management

We provide

- Fundamental knowledge of tourism and hospitality management
- Academic-level research abilities to advance a scholar's career
- Opportunities for jobs after graduation
- Modern and fully equipped facilities

Scholarship incentives

Opportunities for international students to study in Taiwan

- MOE Scholarship
- ICDF Scholarship
- MOFA Scholarship
- NKUHT Foreign Student Scholarship
- Other opportunities from NKUHT

FUNDING INFORMATION CAN CHANGE, SO CHECK THE LATEST OFFICIAL GUIDANCE BEFORE APPLYING.

Weather

Enjoyable warm subtropical climate

- Warm subtropical climate
- 24 - 32 Celcious Degree
- Most well known for lovely sunny days
- With ocassional rain and typhoons

Wear light clothes, stay hydrated and prepare for seasonal weather changes.

Daily rhythm

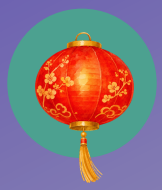

Kicks off with outdoor cafés.
Beach walks to chill in the afternoon
Savor food in night markets

Culture

Kaohsiung is well-known for its harmonic fusion of harbor-city energy with Taiwan's rich cultural traditions.

Many long-established Temples and traditions

Fascinating Festivals and arts

Friendly local neighborhoods

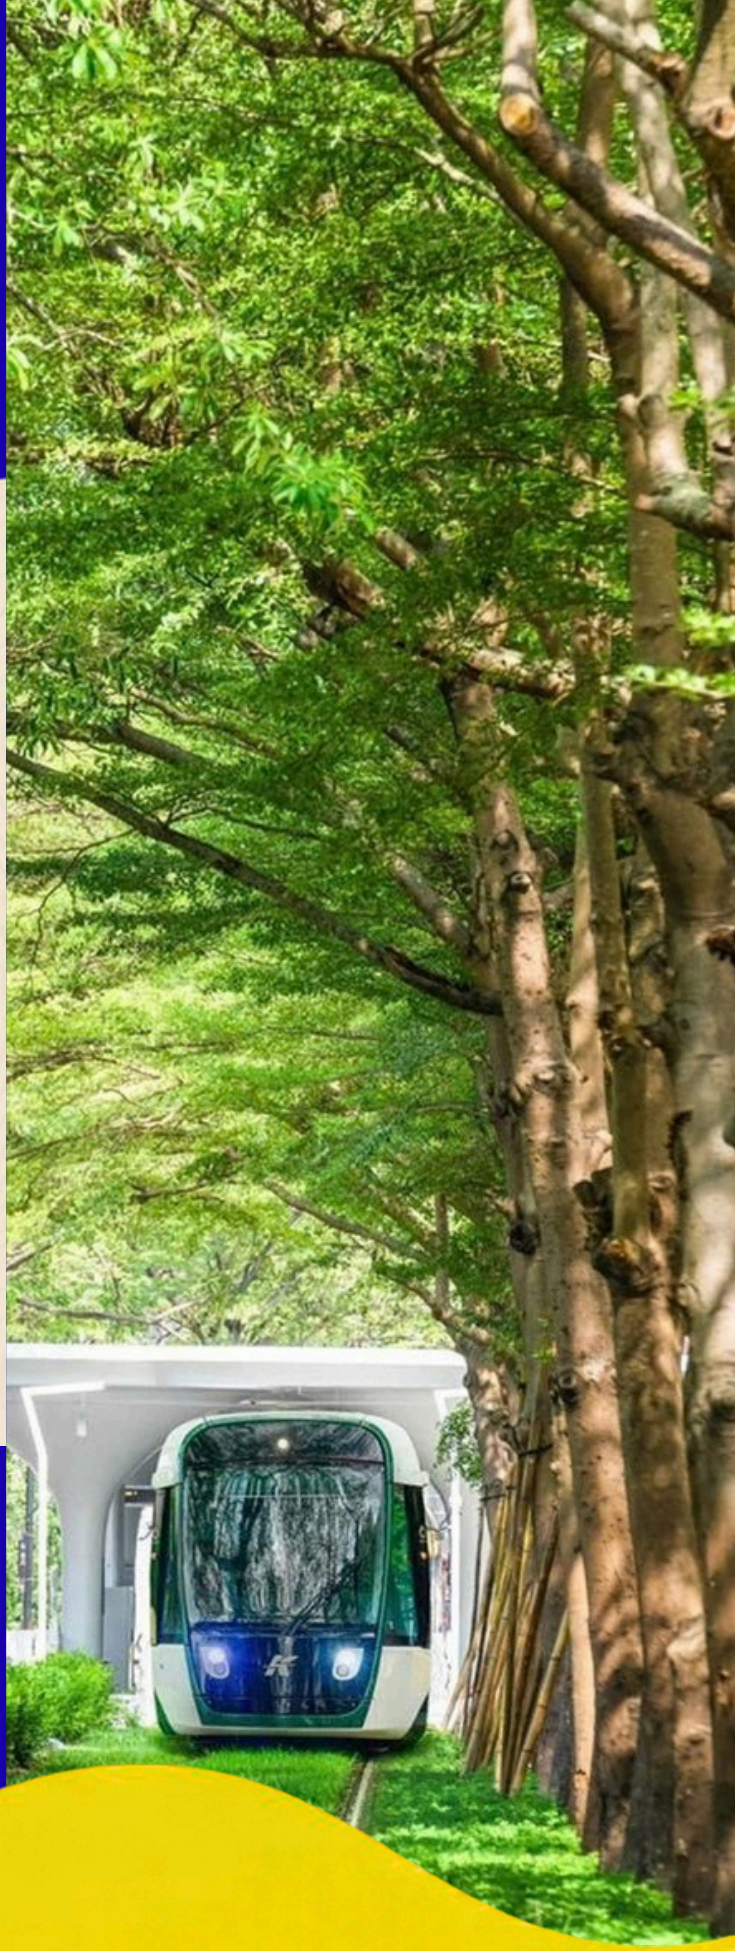

Learn through the people, not just in the classroom.

Transportation

Wide range of public transport options
Easy to travel across the city.

- MRT Subway train
- Light Rail on surface train
- Bus lines
- YouBike
- Ferries

Modern, convenient, and fast.

All can be pay with just EasyCard

Culinary

If you travel to Kaohsiung, tasting food here is a must

Fresh seafood

Night-market favorites

Beef noodle soup

Bubble tea

Food is one of the most memorable ways to experience a culture